A Prophetic Word for you
1 Corinthians 3:9.

'GRACE AND STRENGTH'

'For the wages of sin is death, but the gift of God (free gift) is Eternal life in Christ Jesus our Lord', Romans 6:23.

Let us pray: Heavenly Father I pray may the seeds of suffering or of tribulations or of the sorrow that trouble me (and others) at times can flower into joy into one's life, and that I can show how grateful I am and not be left alone to flounder in weakness. O'Lord strengthen me through Your life-line that I come to You in prayer, having Your grace in my heart as I submit my willingness to hear Your Word by way of the Spiritual ears that I have unstopped to always be able to receive Your voice, amen. (1 Corinthians 2:9-10).

Oh Lord Jesus, I ask of You to help me (and others) see the evidence of Your presence and to realize anew, Your promise to be with those who keep the faith in Your commandments. Thank You Heavenly Father, for the joy and peace that I may encounter all through this month and of what I have received beforehand, as I know when I am weak, by my faith in You; You make me strong in Your strength and grace of my Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ, in Jesus name I praise Your name on high Heavenly Father, amen.

Dear God for this month, I pray that you will keep me alert to Satan's clever scheming attacks (Ephesians 6:16.), and help me to defeat him in all rebuke by the power of my anointing. And help me also not to give up to quickly with impatience on those I seek to show Your Light on their path toward the Christian way, Lord give me the grace and strength of Your power to preserve and be of righteous obedience in heart to do Your Will, amen.

I thank You my God for those people who help me in my deeds and duty that have no self recognition or reward, help me also to be as one of those with no selfish spirit, but, of only a generous and caring one in all charitable deeds for Your names sake. Blessed are You my Lord for the glory and the victories shall be Yours at all times. Help me also today and every other day You bless me with not to be careless about my relationship with You, to always remember; You are first, others second, and self last but not of the least in Jesus name, (2 Corinthians 12:9) as it is Your Will teach me to give priority to the Eternal values which make life worth living as I have learned as being a born again Christian, amen.

JESUS IS LORD
